Globe Real Estate Office

F. L. TOOMBS, Manager

We buy large areas and subdivide same into good size residence lots. Note the advantage to our customers. First cost of lots is less than half what it would be if we were to buy a few lots at a time. Again, we survey the entire tract at once. Then, if there are any defects in titles, the work necessary to perfect title to one lot will cover one hundred lots.

That is the reason we sell choice lots properly surveyed with clear titles at 50 to 70 per cent of prices currently paid for the same class of ground

We also furnish abstracts; you are never safe without an abstract. With a complete transcript of the county records we are able to furnish our customers with complete information regarding any property in the county.

BIG FIGHT ON IN INDIANA

Beveridge and Fairbanks in Struggle for Supremacy—Senator Seeks New Preliminary Law as Only Means of His Re-election.

A special to the Chicago Record-Herald from Indianapolis says: The members-elect of the house and senate who are known to be adherents of United States Senator Beveridge are coming to the legislative session with a determination to have a general primary election law enacted along with the other reforms that are scheduled for this winter. They admit that the older politicians are under the control of Vice President Fairbanks, and that the only hope of the re-election of Beveridge to the senate is in a primary election law that will give each individual voter an equal voice in the choice of the party leaders.

The conclusion that Beveridge is the target of a great political combination has been forced upon him and his friends within the last few weeks. They now know that Mr. Fairbanks is at the head of an organization whose purpose is to nominate Congressman Watson of the sixth district for governor and name Governor Hanly as Mr. Beveridge's successor in the senate. James P. Goodrich, chairman of the Republican state central committee, is a member of the combination, and it is said that the Paris consulate is to be his reward if Fairbanks is nominated and elected to the presidency.

Seek to Control Machine. Of course, the first object of the organization is to get complete control of the party machinery in the state. Mr. Fairbanks now controls nine of the thirteen members of the state central committee, and these are actively at work in their several districts organizing their friends and getting in shape for the final struggle. In addition to these there is a half hundred of federal employees whom Mr. Fairbanks has appointed, and possibly twice as many men in office in Indiana whom Governor Hanly has appointed. This is the army that Senator Beveridge must go against in order to be chosen for a third term in the senate, and his friends candidly avow that he will not be equal to the emergency if present methods of selecting the campaign committees are continued.

Beveridge's friends have faith in the primary for the reason that his support is largely among the young and active Republicans of the state, but, outside of two or three cities, they have proved impotent because not versed in political methods. It has been noticed also that in every instance where the question of leadership was submitted to a primary Beveridge has fared much better than when delegates were selected in town ship and county conventions by the old methods.

Losers in Last Contest. In the last contest for members of the state central committee Fairbanks secured nine members and Beveridge but four, and in a majority of these in which he lost he was assumed to have majorities in the districts. His friends say they were simply wheedled out of votes by the arts of the old politicians whom Fairbanks succeeded in lining up on his side, and that the only hope of defeating the vice president in the struggle to control the party organization is in having a primary law and allowing the vote of each man to count the same as in the selection of electors.

MEN STRIKE AT HELVETIA

Walkout Follows Refusal to Give Increase to Hoisting Engineers—Tucson Requested to Send Police Assistance to the Camp.

Not a word has been received here today from Helvetia, where a strike of the hoisting engineers is in progress, says Saturday's Tucson Citizen. Late yesterday afternoon a special messenger arrived in the city from Helvetia bringing a message from Superintendent P. B. Close to Sheriff Pacheco, asking for protection.

In the message it was stated that the hoisting engineers had gone on a strike and that many of the Mexican miners were drinking and it was feared that serious trouble, which might result in loss of life and destruction of property, would break out.

Sheriff Pacheco at once sent Under-sheriff Meyer and Deputies Odell and Escovasa to Helvetia.

Owing to the fact that Helvetia is more than ten miles from telegraph or telephone communication, it was impossible to learn anything today about the situation there.

It is supposed, however, that the officers have the situation well in hand, as they were given instructions to send in mounted messengers for additional help if the situation there was found to be serious.

The difficulty occurred several days ago when the hoisting engineers demanded more pay. They waited upon Superintendent Close and stated that they did not think they were receiving enough pay. Superintendent Close declined to grant them an advance in wages and they struck, tying up the mine.

Orders were immediately sent out for other engineers, who were secured without difficulty. Thursday night one of the new engineers was held up by a party of masked men while at work and threatened with death if he did not cease work.

Yesterday when the Mexican miners were seen to be drinking considerably, it was decided to send to Tucson for additional protection, as it was feared that the strikers might incite the miners to strike and get them to destroy company property.

At Helvetia there are two regular deputy sheriffs, Mills and Turner. These officers, with officials of the company and the additional officers sent out from here, should have the situation well in hand.

Superintendent Close, in his letter to Sheriff Pacheco, stated that the difficulty was not over the organization of a union, nor was it a strike of the miners. He stated that the hoisting engineers did not have their demands complied with and consequently went on a strike and sought to keep new engineers from working. There are in all about 250 men employed at Helvetia, and a general strike, should one be called, could easily become a serious matter.

December 26, 1906. G. W. WOY, Secretary.

IN THE PROBATE COURT Of the County of Gila, Territory of Arizona.

In the Matter of the Estate of George W. Wagner, Deceased. Notice by Clerk of Day Fixed for Hearing Return of Sale of Real Estate.

Pursuant to an order of the Probate Court, made on the seventeenth day of December, 1906, notice is hereby given that L. C. Wagner, administrator of the estate of said deceased, made to the said court and filed in the office of the clerk thereof on said day, a return of sale made by L. C. Wagner, administrator, on the 17th day of December, 1906, under a previous order of said court, of the following real estate, and for the following named sum, to wit: An undivided one-half interest in and to three mining claims known as the Columbus, Portland and Copperopolis; consideration, thirty-seven and 50-100 ($37.50) dollars, as will more fully appear from said return filed as aforesaid, and to which reference is hereby made for further particulars.

And notice is hereby further given that Wednesday, the 2nd day of January, 1907, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the courtroom of said court, at the courthouse in Gila county, Arizona, has been fixed for hearing the said return, when and where any person interested in the said estate may appear and file written objections to the confirmation of the said sale, and may be heard, and may produce witnesses in support of such objection.

Dated December 18th, 1906. P. C. ROBERTSON, Clerk. By H. Q. Robertson, Deputy Clerk.

OUR VERY BEST HOT BLAST

is the strongest and best hot blast stove made. It is a really wonderful burner (will hold fire 10 hours with half a pair of soft coals). It will burn ANYTHING—no coal is too cheap or poor for it.

Mail the heating power of coal gone up the chimney as gas, when ordinary heaters are used. In the O. V. B. Hot Blast, this gas is utilized and burned so that less coal is used and more heat obtained. This is accomplished by means of the Hot Blast Draft which takes in fresh air at the top of the stove, heats it to more than 600 degrees and forces it over the upper surface of the burning coal. The gas is then slightly oxidized and burned, giving more heat than is obtained in ordinary heaters. This Hot Blast stove will burn hard coal or a base burner, to heat the same room. It gives off a uniform heat and is absolutely air tight. Don't worry about the price of hard coal. This Hot Blast solves the problem. Look it over and see for yourself. It is made better and heavier in every way than any other similar stove sold. See it before you buy.
